Learn at Home with PBS KIDS

Week of February 1st

Hello, Families!

Welcome to Learn Along Bingo! We're happy to share PBS KIDS activities with you and to work with PBS member stations and community partners across the country to help support learning at home. With Learn Along Bingo, children can view, explore, and play as they learn alongside their PBS KIDS friends on the PBS KIDS 24/7 channel. We hope your family will use it to inspire learning each and every day.

It's Learning About Black Leaders Week!

In this packet, there are printable activities and everyday learning ideas for you and your child to choose from. As you complete each square, mark it off to celebrate the learning.

Learning Spotlight: Learning About Black Leaders

Identifying specific contributions of people, past and present is important. We learn to celebrate individuals and the part they play in our lives.

Show What You Know: Misty Copeland

The last activity in this packet is a perfect way for children to learn about Misty Copeland and her accomplishments.

Tune in: Watch PEG + CAT at 7am on Tuesday, February 2nd on the PBS KIDS 24/7 channel.

Ready for more? Watch your favorite PBS KIDS shows on the 24/7 channel and live stream at pbskids.org/video/livetv or on your local PBS station.

Happy learning!

Celebrating Black Leaders

The month of February honors the important role Black people play in the story of our country. Across the United States, schools and communities organize to learn more about Black History and Culture. Match the historical Black figure with the description that shares a piece of what they accomplished.

Zora Neale Hurston

He was a lawyer, judge and civil rights activist. In 1967, he became the first Black person appointed to the U.S Supreme Court

Jackie Robinson

He studied plants and worked to improve the lives of Black farmers in the South. He created 105 recipes using peanuts!

Celia Cruz

She escaped slavery and returned several times to lead other slaves to freedom on the Underground Railroad throughout the 1850s.

In 1947, he became the first Black baseball player to play in the American major leagues during the 20th century. He played with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Thurgood Marshall

She was known as the "Queen of Salsa" and is famous for helping popularize Afro-Cuban and Latin music all over the world. She recorded more than 70 albums!

Harriet Tubman

She was a poet and wrote plays and books. She was one of the few Black women who were published during her lifetime.

George Washington Carver
